E. THE GENERAL NATURE OF THE CLAIM AND AN INDICATION OF THE AMOUNT INVOLVED

1. Pope & Talbot, Inc., the Investor, is a United States company with its head office in Portland, Oregon. Pope & Talbot, Inc. owns Pope & Talbot, Ltd. (the "Investment"), which operates three softwood lumber mills in the southern interior of British Columbia.
2. In 1849, the Investor commenced business operations in the softwood lumber sector. Since 1969, the Investor has maintained softwood lumber operations in Canada primarily for export to the United States.
3. In May 1996, Canada and the United States entered into the Softwood Lumber Agreement. This Agreement required Canada to charge a fee for all exports of softwood lumber to the United States from the Canadian provinces of Quebec, Ontario, Alberta and British Columbia once a threshold of 14.7 billion board feet of softwood lumber exports had been reached.
4. Pursuant to the Softwood Lumber Agreement, Canada established an Export Control Regime for softwood lumber (the "Export Control Regime") that:
  - (a) required exporters from Quebec, Ontario, Alberta and British Columbia to obtain export permits before exporting softwood lumber products to the United States;
  - (b) established a fee of US$104.18 per thousand board feet (approximately 30% of the cost of producing one thousand board feet) for a permit to export softwood lumber to the United States; and
  - (c) created a discretionary quota allocation regime to allocate among Canadian softwood lumber exporters the rights to export 14.7 billion board feet of softwood lumber free of export fees (the "fee-free quota") and an additional 650 million board feet of exports that were subject to a reduced fee.
5. Harm to the Investment has been caused by the measures Canada has taken to establish and implement the Export Control Regime. This harm has resulted in particular from:
  - (a) The Investment's loss of market share to softwood lumber exporters in provinces that are not subject to the quota, where softwood lumber exports increased substantially as a result of the imposition of the Export Control Regime.
  - (b) Unfair and inequitable allocation of quota to the Investment, which has had its share of the initial allocation of fee-free exports reduced from [REDACTED] feet to only [REDACTED] between 1996/97 and 1998/99. This represents a decline of 6.27%.

F. RELIEF OR REMEDY SOUGHT

The Investor claims the following:

- i. Damages as compensation caused by or arising out of Canada's measures that are inconsistent with its obligations contained in Part A of Chapter 11 of the NAFTA for not less than the following:

(a) Minimum Standard of Treatment	US$ 50,578,700
(b) National Treatment	US$ 125,657,900
(c) Most Favoured Nation Treatment	US$ 125,657,900
(d) Performance Requirements	US$ 125,657,900
(e) Expropriation	US$ 80,000,000
- ii. Costs associated with these proceedings, including all professional fees and disbursements.
- iii. Fees and expenses incurred to oppose the effect of the Softwood Lumber Agreement and those changes to Canadian domestic law made pursuant to that Agreement.
- iv. Pre-award and post-award interest at a rate to be fixed by the Tribunal.
- v. Tax consequences of the award to maintain the integrity of the award.
- vi. An Interim Order providing interim measures of protection pursuant to NAFTA Article 1134 to preserve the rights of the Investor and to provide that the Investment's annual softwood lumber allocation from Canada not be decreased pending a final award of the Tribunal.
- vii. Such further relief that counsel may advise and that this Tribunal may deem appropriate.

G. APPOINTMENT OF ARBITRATORS

Pursuant to Article 1123 of the NAFTA, the Investor and the Party have agreed on the number of arbitrators, which shall be three, and on the procedure for appointment. One arbitrator is to be appointed by each of the disputing parties and the third, which is the presiding arbitrator, is appointed by agreement of the disputing parties.
